Online Safety and Research K-2

Featuring: "NetSmartz", "Cyber Smart Curriculum" and "PebbleGo"
Presenters: Terrie Thomas, Melanie Nichols, and Janice Harless
Troy Elementary, Montgomery County Schools, NC
March 4th, 2011 – NCTIES Annual Conference

Free Online Safety

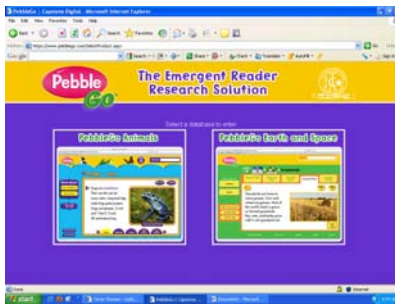

www.netsmartz.org

This is a free website that contains online safety materials for parents, students, teachers, and law enforcement.

Free Cyber Smart Curriculum Lessons K-12

http://cybersmartcurriculum.org/

This free website offers lessons on cyber bullying, online manners, safety, security, digital citizenship, and research.

PebbleGo

www.Pebblego.com

PebbleGo is a database for preschool through second grade to use for researching animals and earth science. Read aloud options are available. Biographies will be added in the spring. The individual programs are $395.00 each.

Free demo: www.pebblego.com click on (Learn More.)